Room 201

Update on Changes to CJIS Security Policies

The FBI is modernizing the CJIS Security Policy (CJISSECPOL). This modernization will align the policy to NIST and in doing so it will introduce sweeping changes with potential impact to the local agencies. Some of these changes are starting to take effect and will become auditable and sanctionable. This course will provide awareness of those changes to help ensure regulatory compliance.

Presenter: James Gore, DPS CJIS ISO

Room 202

Update on Compliance with the Interstate Compact

The Texas Interstate Compact Office within TDCJ oversees both probation and parole compact compliance. With the migratory nature of contemporary society, many Texas offenders leave the state under supervision. This course will provide an update on the current compliance on out-of-state pick-up with a primary focus on probationers who fall under the sheriff's responsibility.

Presenter: Cynthia (Cindy) Stout, TDCJ

Room 203

Update on School Safety Initiatives and Statutory Changes

The Texas Education Agency received funding during the 88th Legislative Session to increase its staffing and oversight of school safety initiatives. The passage of HB3 also added new requirements on school districts and law enforcement. This course will provide an update on these changes and help define for sheriffs TEA's role in this area.

Presenters: Chief John Scott and Deputy Chief James (Jay) Finley, TEA

Room 204 - * two 2-hour blocks: 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM and 3:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Navigating Cybersecurity Incidents Impacting Law Enforcement: Roles, Responsibilities, and Compliance

In today's digital landscape, cybersecurity incidents pose significant challenges for law enforcement agencies. This session covers the essential roles and responsibilities of law enforcement personnel in responding to these incidents; emphasizing best practices for effective incident management. Additionally, we will address the importance of compliance with relevant laws and regulations ensuring that agencies remain aligned with legal and procedural standards, to include CJIS compliance.
